

Information - XVIII International Course for the Measurement of Liquid Discharge in Great Rivers

Dear Participant,

Here is some information about the XVIII International Course for the Measurement of Liquid Discharge in Great Rivers: measurement techniques that will take place from August 22 to 31, 2019. The course is held by the National Water Agency – ANA/Brazil in partnership with the Geological Service of Brazil - CPRM.

We emphasize that the course will be free, however, hotel and travel expenses (airfare and transfers) must be post by the participant or his / her employment institution.

During the course the teaching material will be available. It is necessary for participants to take laptop to perform the activities of the course.

If you have not yet confirmed your participation, we ask that you confirm your participation and send a copy of your document (passport) by email (to capacitacao@ana.gov.br or gean.carvalho@ana.gov.br) otherwise, the vacancy will be made available to waiting list candidates.

We remind you that, according to the attached schedule, on August 22 and 23, the activities will take place in Manaus, so the participant must provide accommodation (List of hotels in Manaus at the end of this email).

On the other days (from 24 to 31 August) will be in Manacapuru/AM. In this city, the accommodation will be provided by the Course Coordination, being the costs of the course students. Everyone will be staying at the Hotel Maranata: +55 (92) 3361-1516, whose rooms have already been reserved to prevent someone from running out of room. Participants will be allocated in double or single rooms, subject to availability and must pay daily rates directly to the hotel in the amount of: Double Room: R$ 120,00 and Single Room R$ 80,00. Check-out will take place on August 31th in the morning, and participants will travel to Manaus by boat.

To avoid inconvenience with the transportation of students in Manaus, a bus will transfer from the Manaus downtown to the opening site and theory class on August 22 and 23, 2019, respectively. The bus pick-up point will be at Eduardo Ribeiro Avenue, behind the Amazonas Theater. Stay tuned for bus departure times.
